JOHN A. SYDENSTRICKER

John Andrew Sydenstricker, 77, vice president and cashier of the First National Bank of Marlinton, died at 8:30 Monday morning, Dec. 12, 1955, of a heart attack at the bank. He had not been well for about 10 days, but had felt well enough to go to the bank that morning. He was a native of Pocahontas county, born at Hillsboro, a son of the late Dr. and Mrs. David Sydenstricker. His father was a Presbyterian minister, who served the Hillsboro Church many years. He was a graduate of Hampden-Sydney College, Virginia, and had been with the bank since 1903. At the time of his death he was serving his 14th year as a director of the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond, and was a Mason of 50 years standing. Funeral services were to be held Wednesday afternoon at the Marlinton Presbyterian Church, his pastor, the Rev. E. H. Flaniken to officiate, and burial to follow in Mountain View cemetery. He is survived by his widow, the former Miss Florence Kramer of Roneeverte; a brother, J. Lacy Sydenstricker of Indianapolis, Ind., and two sisters, Miss Virginia Sydenstricker and Mrs. Ivan Colson, both of Roanoke, Va.

MRS. JOHN A. SYDENSTRICKER

Mrs. Florence Kramer Sydenstricker, 77, widow of John A. Sydenstricker of Marlinton, followed her husband in death eleven days at her home in Marlinton Friday afternoon, Dec. 23, 1955, at 3:30 o'clock. She had not been well for ten years. For 50 years, Mrs. Sydenstricker and her late husband had been prominent in the social and civic life of Marlinton. She was in charge of the Pocahontas County Child Welfare Bureau, a charter member of the Marlinton Woman's Club, and an active member of the Marlinton Presbyterian Church. Her late husband was vice president of the First National Bank of Marlinton and a director of the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond. She was born at Glen City, Pa., Oct. 26, 1879, a daughter of the late Ephraim L. and Mrs. Jane Reinbold Kramer, who moved to Ronceverte in the early 1880s, and lived here with her parents until her marriage. She is survived by a sister, Mrs. Alice Kramer Jackson, who lived with her since the death of her husband, also several nieces and nephews, including Judge Nickell Kramer of the Circuit Court. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at the Marlinton Presbyterian Church with the Rev. E. H. Flaniken officiating. Burial followed in Mountain View cemetery beside her husband.
